Willow Bank Infant School
An explanation of the Home-School Agreement

The home-school agreement is a legal requirement of the Department for Education, which the school must provide. As stated in our prospectus; "We aim to involve parents as much as possible in their children's education and in the life of the school."

The Home-School Agreement sets out the ways in which we can work together in the years ahead. It reinforces our school aims, including our focus on parental involvement, which helps to promote a sense of belonging to the Willow Bank Infant school family.

We hope that you will agree to sign both copies of the agreement. Please return one to the school; the other is for you to keep. If you feel unable to sign for any reason, do not hesitate to contact us so that we can try to resolve any issues.

We look forward to a long and happy partnership between Willow Bank Infant School and your family.
